

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Andrews Distributing Recognized as Beverage Industry's Wholesaler of the Year
Family-owned beer distributor is only company to receive title twice

DALLAS – (Sep. 14, 2020) – Andrews Distributing Company, one of the nation's largest beer distributors, has been awarded Wholesaler of the Year by Beverage Industry Magazine. Andrews is the only distributor in the country to receive the honor twice since the award was created in 2011. The company's rich history, strong commitment to sustainability, and dedication to its customers and communities consistently sets Andrews apart from its competitors.

"Andrews' purpose of 'serving one another in pursuit of being our best', whether that be a partner, a team member or the communities we serve, is at the heart of everything we do. This has been our driving force since the company was founded in 1976, and it has held even truer throughout 2020 as we have navigated through the COVID-19 pandemic," said Mike McGuire, president & CEO, Andrews Distributing Company. "We are honored to be recognized by Beverage Industry Magazine. This award is a testament to the work our teams do every day to ensure our retail customers and brewing partners are connecting with their beer consumers."

"Thinking about where we started all those years ago and then where we are now makes me so unbelievably proud of this team," said Barry Andrews, founder and chairman of Andrews Distributing. "From 11 employees and 276,000 cases our first year to 1,600 team members and 35 million cases now, it is hard to put into words how thankful I am to be a part of this, and how excited we are about this award."

Click here to read more about the award and how Andrews is innovating to help shape the future of the beer distribution industry.

###

About Andrews Distributing

Andrews Distributing Company is one of the nation's largest beer distributors with facilities in Dallas, Allen, Corpus Christi and Fort Worth, Texas. Andrews employs 1,600 proud team members who manage distribution centers totaling more than one million square feet and deliver more than 35 million cases annually. The Andrews team distributes over 700 beer brands to 26 North and South Texas counties. Andrews is dedicated to being a marketing and technology leader in the industry with the focus of serving retail customers, Building Brands and celebrating a winning team culture.